A Brief Introduction to Prague

- Prague is the largest city in, and capital of, the Czech Republic
- The city was settled around 200 BC, and since 1992, the extensive historic center of Prague has been included in the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites
- The beautiful city center was untouched in the World Wars, and as such, remains well intact
- Prague is a top tourist destination: the 6th most visited city in Europe
- Hockey is HUGE in the Czech Republic, so rest assured you'll meet with strong competition
- As the cultural and economic center of the country, there is an abundance of art, architecture, and industry to behold
